Directions: For the following Text Completion questions, select one entry for each blank from the corresponding column of choices. Fill all blanks in the way that best completes the text.

11. Although not enough to _____ the conventional view of the manuscript's provenance, the new study was thought to have weakened the prevailing theory considerably.

    (A) undermine
    (B) affect
    (C) resurrect
    (D) disturb
    (E) topple

12. The economist argued that however much the government might trumpet the value of _____, it had been as bold as any other in its spending programs.

    (A) thrift
    (B) consumption
    (C) dialogue
    (D) cooperation
    (E) transparency

13. She knew well, from experience with hundreds of hired crew members on her boats, how ___(i)___ attitudes can be: one negative influence can impel an otherwise ___(ii)___ member of a crew to quit.

Blank (i)	Blank (ii)
(A) insipid	(D) untested
(B) infectious	(E) captious
(C) innocuous	(F) contented

14. Recently the novelist has ___(i)___ the radically experimental forms with which he made his reputation in favor of more ___(ii)___ narratives, fencing in and turning an imagination meant to run wild.

Blank (i)	Blank (ii)
(A) trumpeted	(D) conventional
(B) forsaken	(E) pretentious
(C) replicated	(F) provocative

15. It is plausible to regard a collection of letters spanning youth and old age as (i) of autobiography: the precession of characters who inhabit a life and a chronology of incidents turn up reliably in either form. Yet autobiography, even when ostensibly steeped in candor, tends toward (ii) through later perspectives, afterwords, and second thoughts, whereas letters have an undeniable (iii), offering select glimpses of the fraught and living moment.

Blank (i)	Blank (ii)	Blank (iii)
(A) an approximation	(D) concision	(G) sensitivity
(B) a precursor	(E) reconsideration	(H) immediacy
(C) the antithesis	(F) sensationalism	(I) formality

16. The nature of our recollection is (i). One memory can seem (ii) whereas another must be coaxed out of our brain little by little. Although a moment that excites our emotions is more likely to be recorded than a (iii) experience, the sensory qualities of an event also play a part in how vividly and accurately we remember it.

Blank (i)	Blank (ii)	Blank (iii)
(A) inaccurate	(D) vague and spotty	(G) riveting
(B) inconsistent	(E) immediate and colorful	(H) traumatic
(C) insignificant	(F) unreliable and elusive	(I) routine

Directions: For the following Sentence Equivalence questions, select the two answer choices that, when used to complete the sentence, fit the meaning of the sentence as a whole and produce completed sentences that are alike in meaning.
